Praying Together

*“The joy of love
in families
is also the joy of the Church.”*

“The Joy of Love” #1

When working with engaged couples, I always mention that the Church is in the “business of marriage promotion.” There is much wisdom that can be gleaned from some 2000 years of preparing couples for Christian marriage. And it works. Study after study consistently shows how those who pray together, worship together, and live in harmony with God’s Plan are healthier and happier. One of the easiest ways to improve your marriage is to pray as a couple.

Most are familiar with the old saying, “the family that prays together, stays together.” We all know it, but struggle to do it. So let me offer a simple template. The prayer to the right is for spouses. In it, you’ll find the recipe for a holy and happy marriage, invoking the assistance of our Lord, who indeed desires just that for you. As we celebrate World Marriage Day and Valentine’s Day, pray this with your spouse. And don’t just do it today, but resolve to pray it every day together, perhaps before going to bed each night. Bringing the Lord into your marriage cannot help but unify and strengthen your relationship.

And here’s one final suggestion, next time you go to a wedding, include this prayer with the card. It may be the most valuable gift you can give a couple.

Prayer of Spouses for Each Other

Lord Jesus, grant that I and my spouse may have a true and understanding love for each other. Grant that we may both be filled with faith and trust. Give us the grace to live with each other in peace and harmony. May we always bear with one another’s weaknesses and grow from each other’s strengths. Help us to forgive one another’s failings and grant us patience, kindness, cheerfulness and the spirit of placing the well-being of one another ahead of self.

May the love that brought us together grow and mature with each passing year. Bring us both ever closer to You through our love for each other. Let our love grow to perfection. Amen.
