FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

Vermont Catholic, communications team earn 10 Catholic Media Awards

Vermont Catholic magazine and the Diocese of Burlington's communications team continued their long-time winning streak as together they earned 10 awards at the 2022 Catholic Media Conference July 7 in Portland, Oregon.

The 2022 press awards program had about 2,700 entries in 472 categories. More than 160 organizations entered this year's program.

This year's Vermont Catholic magazine and the Diocese of Burlington's communications team awards are:

- 1 Diocesan Magazine of the Year
Third place, Vermont Catholic, Communication Staff.
The judges commented, "Excellent coverage of important spiritual matters both contemporary and timeless. Vermont Catholic should be commended for reaching its audience no matter where they are in their faith journey."
- 2 Best Single Ad Campaign with Publication
First place, Vermont Catholic Book Club, Mary-Margaret Carroll.
- 3 Best annual report, Catholic non-profit organization
Third place, Vermont Catholic Community Foundation, Communication and Development Staff. According to the judges, "There are lots of visuals in this report from eye-catching photos to effective graphs. It is cleanly organized and has plenty of stats to show data."
- 4 Best regular column, bishop's column in a diocesan magazine
Honorable mention, Bishop Christopher Coyne.
- 5 Best regular column, family life,
Second place, Evangelization, Deacon Phil Lawson.
The judges commented, "What makes this column stand out is the writer's reliable narrative. Each topic aligns with the writer's overall theme of faith and hope. The tone of each topic is rooted in the tenets of good character, but the writer uses encouraging and relevant examples of how to get there and stay present in faith."
- 6 Best title and lead in
First place, "Catholic tricks for a heavenly treat: A guide to navigating Halloween," Alayna Masker. Wrote the judges, "Catholic tricks for a heavenly treat' has dramatic design and great message — celebrate Halloween as a Catholic. Advice ranges from 'playful and fun costumes vs. dark and demonic' to 'praying in the cemetery vs. playing in the cemetery.' We guarantee you will read this one".

- 7 Best personality profile, religious leader
Honorable Mention, Msgr. Richard Lavalley a priest for 57 years: 'I love it,' Mary Morrell.

- 8 Best special section
Third place, Works of Mercy, Vermont Catholic Staff. According to the judges, this section has "heartwarming and encouraging stories. Articles utilize charitable sketches and photographs that highlight giving theme, and heart/hand graphic ties special section cohesively."
- 9 Best diocesan fundraising appeal produced by a communications department staff
First place, Bishop's Annual Appeal, Communication and Development staff. Noted the judge: "The best part here is the overall breakdown of the financial picture — what the stated goal is and where the money will go. Everything is very clear. I understand exactly what happens to my money. The "Your Gift at Work" feature and analysis is a great supplementary touch. It unfolds the story of the diocese's work."
- 10 Best diocesan video fundraising appeal produced by Communications Department Staff
First place, Communication and Development Staff.

The Catholic Media Conference celebrates the positive impact of individuals and publications for their contributions to the Catholic press. The purpose of the Catholic Press Awards is to acknowledge the outstanding work of its publisher and communication members as they strive to further the mission of the Church. On a daily basis they inform, inspire and educate readers keeping them connected to their faith and telling the story of the Church.

AFFIRMING A CULTURE OF LIFE

A sign seen at a pro-abortion rally: "Abortion is healthcare. Healthcare is a human right!" The intended conclusion being that abortion is therefore a "human right." Except, what about the other human in the picture — the child in the womb? The child may not be a "person" under the law (that occurs at birth), but the baby is indisputably human.

Where would a "right" to abort the child in the womb come from? Abortion advocates have no coherent answer when asked that question. The "right" cannot come from God, or from the value and nature of being human.

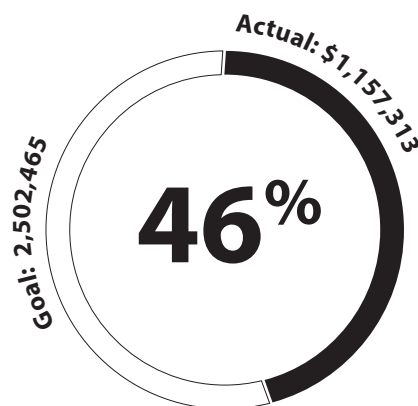

The fact is, the abortion advocates have no answer. They only have slogans, that sound nice but make no sense. The "Reproductive Liberty Amendment" seeks to enshrine this chaotic thinking into the Vermont Constitution.

Please vote "no" to Article 22 in November.

First Saturday Devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary — August 6

In these times, let us seriously consider one of the important messages from our Lady of Fatima — the First Saturday devotion for Reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. This includes attending five consecutive first Saturday masses, going to confession within eight days, receiving Holy Communion, and meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary for fifteen minutes.

All Saints, Richford	Confessions, followed by First Saturday Mass at 8 am, then devotional prayers.
Essex Catholic Community	The Saturday Vigil Mass may be used for the First Saturday Devotion: St. Lawrence at 4 pm and St. Pius X at 4:30 pm.
St. John Vianney, S. Burlington	First Saturday Mass at 8 am. Rosary and Confessions at 8:30 am. Vigil Mass 4:30 pm.
St. Mark, Burlington	First Saturday Mass at 9 am

Does your parish offer special Marian devotion? Post it to the diocesan calendar and we will list it in The Inland See: vermontcatholic.org/events/community/add
