FOR THE DIOCESE OF BURLINGTON

Universal Synod Update

“Synodality is not about winning an argument, it is about planting a tree,” said Dominican Father Timothy Radcliff who, before the Assembly of Bishops in October, led a three-day retreat for the participants.

The first session of the Synodal Assembly of Bishops took place from Oct. 4 to 29 in Rome on the theme “For a Synodal Church. Communion, Participation, Mission.” It was historic in many ways.

For the first time, lay people, those in consecrated life, deacons and priests joined with bishops and the pope to reflect upon the characteristic signs of a synodal Church and the dynamics of communion, mission, and participation that it contains. They discussed issues and themes that arose from churches throughout the world that engaged in the synodal process at diocesan, national, and continental stages beginning in October 2021. They reflected upon the merits of issues, identified themes in need of in-depth study, and voted on a preliminary set of proposals laid out in the synthesis report “XVI Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops” (find the full report at vermontcatholic.org/universalsynod).

While various issues, some controversial, have risen to the top during this process, the synod is not about changing Church doctrine, but rather about inviting more voices to the conversation and decision-making process.

Following the Synod Assembly of Bishops in October 2023, each diocese around the world has been asked to continue the conversation by reflecting upon the synthesis report. The U.S. Synod Team is asking that each diocese have two to three listening sessions during Lent to reflect upon two guiding questions (below). A 3-5-page document synthesizing what was heard at the diocesan listening sessions will be incorporated into a summary from the USCCB to the Secretariat for the Synod of Bishops due in April 2024.

- Where have I seen or experienced successes — and distresses — within the Church’s structure(s)/organization/leadership/life that encourage or hinder the mission?
- How can the structures and organization of the Church help all the baptized to respond to the call to proclaim the Gospel and to live as a community of love and mercy in Christ?

Synod Zoom meetings for parish delegates and parishioners have been scheduled bi-monthly on the second Tuesday of the month at 6 p.m. with an additional meeting added on February 6 at 10 a.m. The Lenten meetings to reflect upon the two guiding questions are planned for February 6 (10am) and March 12 (6pm) with additional meetings planned for May 14, July 16, Sept. 10, and Nov. 12.

Registration is required. Go to vermontcatholic.org/about/who-we-are/universalsynod.

We look forward to listening to your responses.
